Claims are typically denied if the driver is found to be under the influence of alcohol, drugs, or any intoxicating substances at the time of the accident.

❖ Driving Without a Valid License

Operating the vehicle without a valid driver's license, or by an unlicensed or underage driver, generally voids coverage.

❖ Use for Illegal Activities

If the vehicle is used for unlawful purposes, such as smuggling or transporting illegal goods, the insurance policy will not cover any resulting damages or liabilities.

❖ Engaging in Racing or Speed Testing

Participation in races, speed tests, or any form of organized competitions with the insured vehicle is excluded from coverage.

❖ Commercial Use Without Proper Endorsement

Using a personal vehicle for commercial purposes, such as transporting goods or passengers for a fee, without the appropriate endorsement or commercial motor insurance, may result in a denied claim.

❖ Mechanical and Electrical Failures

Damage resulting from mechanical or electrical breakdowns, wear and tear, or gradual deterioration is typically not covered under standard motor insurance policies.

❖ Intentional Damage

Any loss or damage to the vehicle caused intentionally by the insured or with their consent is excluded from coverage.

❖ War, Terrorism, and Civil Unrest

Damages resulting from acts of war and terrorism are generally excluded from coverage.

❖ Driving Outside Geographical Limits

Operating the vehicle outside the geographical area specified in the policy, such as outside Rwanda, may lead to a denial of claims.

❖ Use of Uninsured Rental Vehicles

Driving a rental vehicle that is not adequately insured, or not adhering to the rental agreement's insurance terms, can result in a lack of coverage.
